   The book was very clear
   In class games were fun

2. What elements of the course and instruction did you find least helpful? What changes, if any, do you suggest?

   Lectures seemed to be a necessary struggle.
Below is a list of questions, not all of which may be applicable to this course. Please answer those which are applicable with a single concise sentence.

1. Describe your own motivation and performance in this course.
   I needed an Econ course to get my teaching license in Social Studies. This course seemed fun.

2. Evaluate the instructor's organization of this course.
   Pretty ok. I was lost for a decent period of time as to where we were, in part because some things in class were no where to be found in the book and that threw me off and hurt me a lot.

3. Evaluate the quality of the lectures.
   Lectures were easy, kind of bad for me to follow unless you had the notes. I often didn't even know what the professor was trying to answer or why, thus the effort to take notes.

4. How effective and fair were the reviews and tests given throughout the term?
   These reviews were the hardest I've ever seen. The review questions seemed to be the hardest the course could make and were a lot harder than anything I touched in the book.

5. How effective and fair were this course's writing assignments?

6. Was written work evaluated fairly and returned within a reasonable time?
   Yes

7. Describe the effectiveness of team teaching in this course.
   Not

8. To what extent were you encouraged to think for yourself in this course?
   Plenty, a really good amount actually.

11. Evaluate the quality of the laboratory/studio/workshop sessions in this course.

12. Comment on the quality of the texts, equipment, or facilities for this course.
   Book was very good, but didn't seem to help me or the tests too much.

13. If it was needed, to what degree was help outside of class available and productive?
   Very available and help was fantastic. Really appreciate that.

14. Evaluate the effectiveness of class discussion in this course.
   Really Good

15. Evaluate the course as a whole.
   Challenging, sometimes hard to follow, engaging

16. Evaluate the instructor overall.
   A really Smart guy who can sometimes lose you in lecture, but makes up for it when you speak to him.
