This form will not be returned to the instructor until after grades have been turned in.

1. What elements of the course and instruction did you find most helpful to the accomplishment of the course’s goals?

   Class discussion. This is the first Econ class that I have been able to sit down and talk with my peers about certain Labor ideas. Also, the discussion pertains to my next step in life. I get to know my peers on a comfortable level while learning. This has been a great class. Also, Mark has always put his relationships with students to a high level, so you can trust him.

2. What elements of the course and instruction did you find least helpful? What changes, if any, do you suggest?

   Trying to figure out Stata has been a bit of a pain.

This questionnaire can help instructors improve the quality and effectiveness of their teaching. The college administration will also use it in faculty evaluation. Please answer thoughtfully the questions printed below. After, and only after, you have answered the questions on this page, respond briefly to the specific questions on the back of this form. This form will not be returned to the instructor until after grades have been turned in.

1. What elements of the course and instruction did you find most helpful to the accomplishment of the course's goals?

I found lectures and the book to be most helpful. Lectures coincided with book topics, and lectures were always clear and thorough. The questions we presented in class forced us to learn the applications of the material.

2. What elements of the course and instruction did you find least helpful? What changes, if any, do you suggest?

I found the labor economics project where we picked our own topic to run a regression on to be least helpful. I think it could be more helpful to read more papers than to present our own findings.
Below is a list of questions, not all of which may be applicable to this course. Please answer those which are applicable with a single concise sentence.

1. Describe your own motivation and performance in this course.
   My motivation came from wanting to understand the labor market after I leave Davidson.

This form will not be returned to the instructor until after grades have been turned in.

1. What elements of the course and instruction did you find most helpful to the accomplishment of the course's goals?

The fact that everyone was expected to present 2 studies and problems to the rest of the class made the environment more comfortable in class. Everyone had a voice and was expected to participate. Also the studies made the topics seem more relevant.

2. What elements of the course and instruction did you find least helpful? What changes, if any, do you suggest?

It seemed to kind of take up time that we had to learn Stata when we already knew most of the ways to use Stata. If the department could agree on one I think we could save time.
